

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Hervideros de San Jacinto

---

POSTERS

Behavioral Objectives

- Hire local guides.
- Buy souvenirs.
- Avoid dangerous activities & injuries.
- Stay longer.

Learning Objectives

- Know guides are available.
- Understand how geothermal features are formed.
- Learn what attractions are available to visit.
- Understand the hazards.

Emotional Objectives

- Respect the high temperatures.
- Appreciate locals' efforts to improve themselves.
- Make visitors feel good that they are helping.
- Feel safe to take a tour.

Key Messages

- You are welcome and appreciated in San Jacinto.
- Hire a local guide to be safe (it's dangerous!).
- The boiling mud and steam is heated by volcanic activity deep underground (its hot!).

¡BIENVENIDOS! WELCOME!

San Jacinto's economy is based mainly on subsistence farming and tourism.

Tours are available to the boiling mud pits, Telica and Santa Clara volcanoes, and the hot springs.

By hiring local guides and buying souvenirs and refreshments, you are supporting the community.

Thank you!

La Economía de San Jacinto está basada principalmente en una agricultura de subsistencia y en el turismo.

Puede visitar los hervideros, los volcanes Telica y Santa Clara y las aguas termales.

Apoye a las familias locales utilizando a los guías locales y comprando souvenirs y refrescos.

¡Gracias!

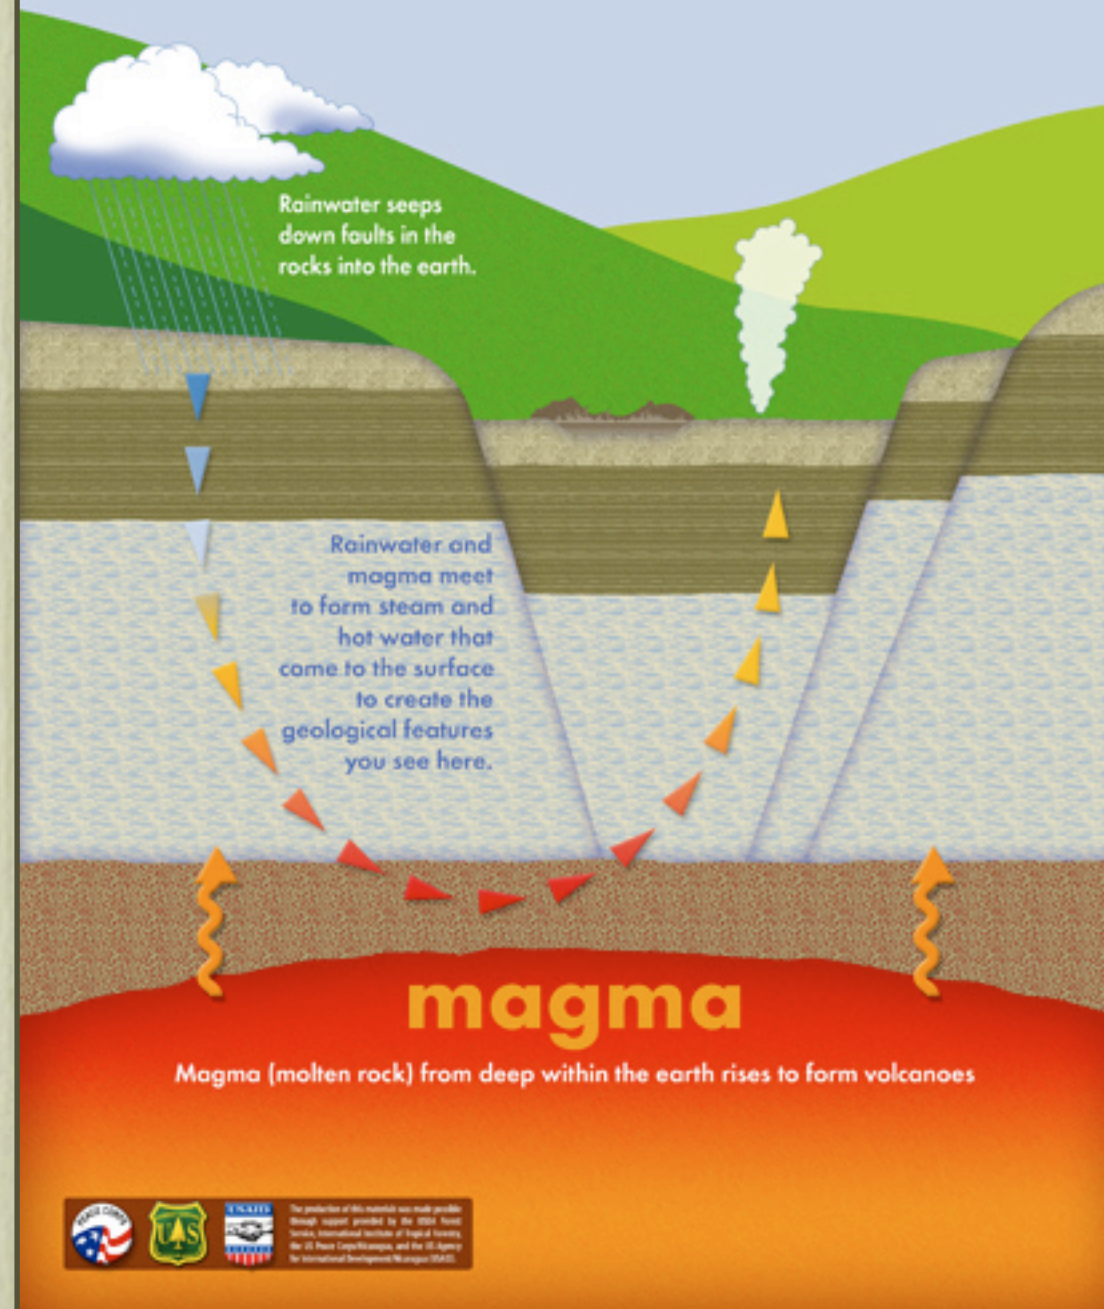

The production of this material was made possible through support provided by the World Bank, International Institute of Tropical Forestry, the US Peace Corps/Tennessee, and the US Agency for International Development (USAID).

The production of this material was made possible through support provided by the World Bank, International Institute of Tropical Forestry, the US Peace Corps/Tennessee, and the US Agency for International Development (USAID).

¿PORQUÉ SON TAN CALIENTES? WHAT MAKES THEM SO HOT?

¡TENGA CUIDADO! PLEASE BE SAFE!

- The crust around the mud pits may look solid but is always changing.
  - Do not touch the boiling mud; it is hot enough to cook an egg.
  - If you climb the volcanoes, be sure to bring plenty of water and sturdy shoes.
  - Trails can be confusing and dangerous, so please use a local guide.
-
- The crust around the mud pits may look solid but is always changing.
  - Do not touch the boiling mud; it is hot enough to cook an egg.
  - If you climb the volcanoes, be sure to bring plenty of water and sturdy shoes.
  - Trails can be confusing and dangerous, so please use a local guide.

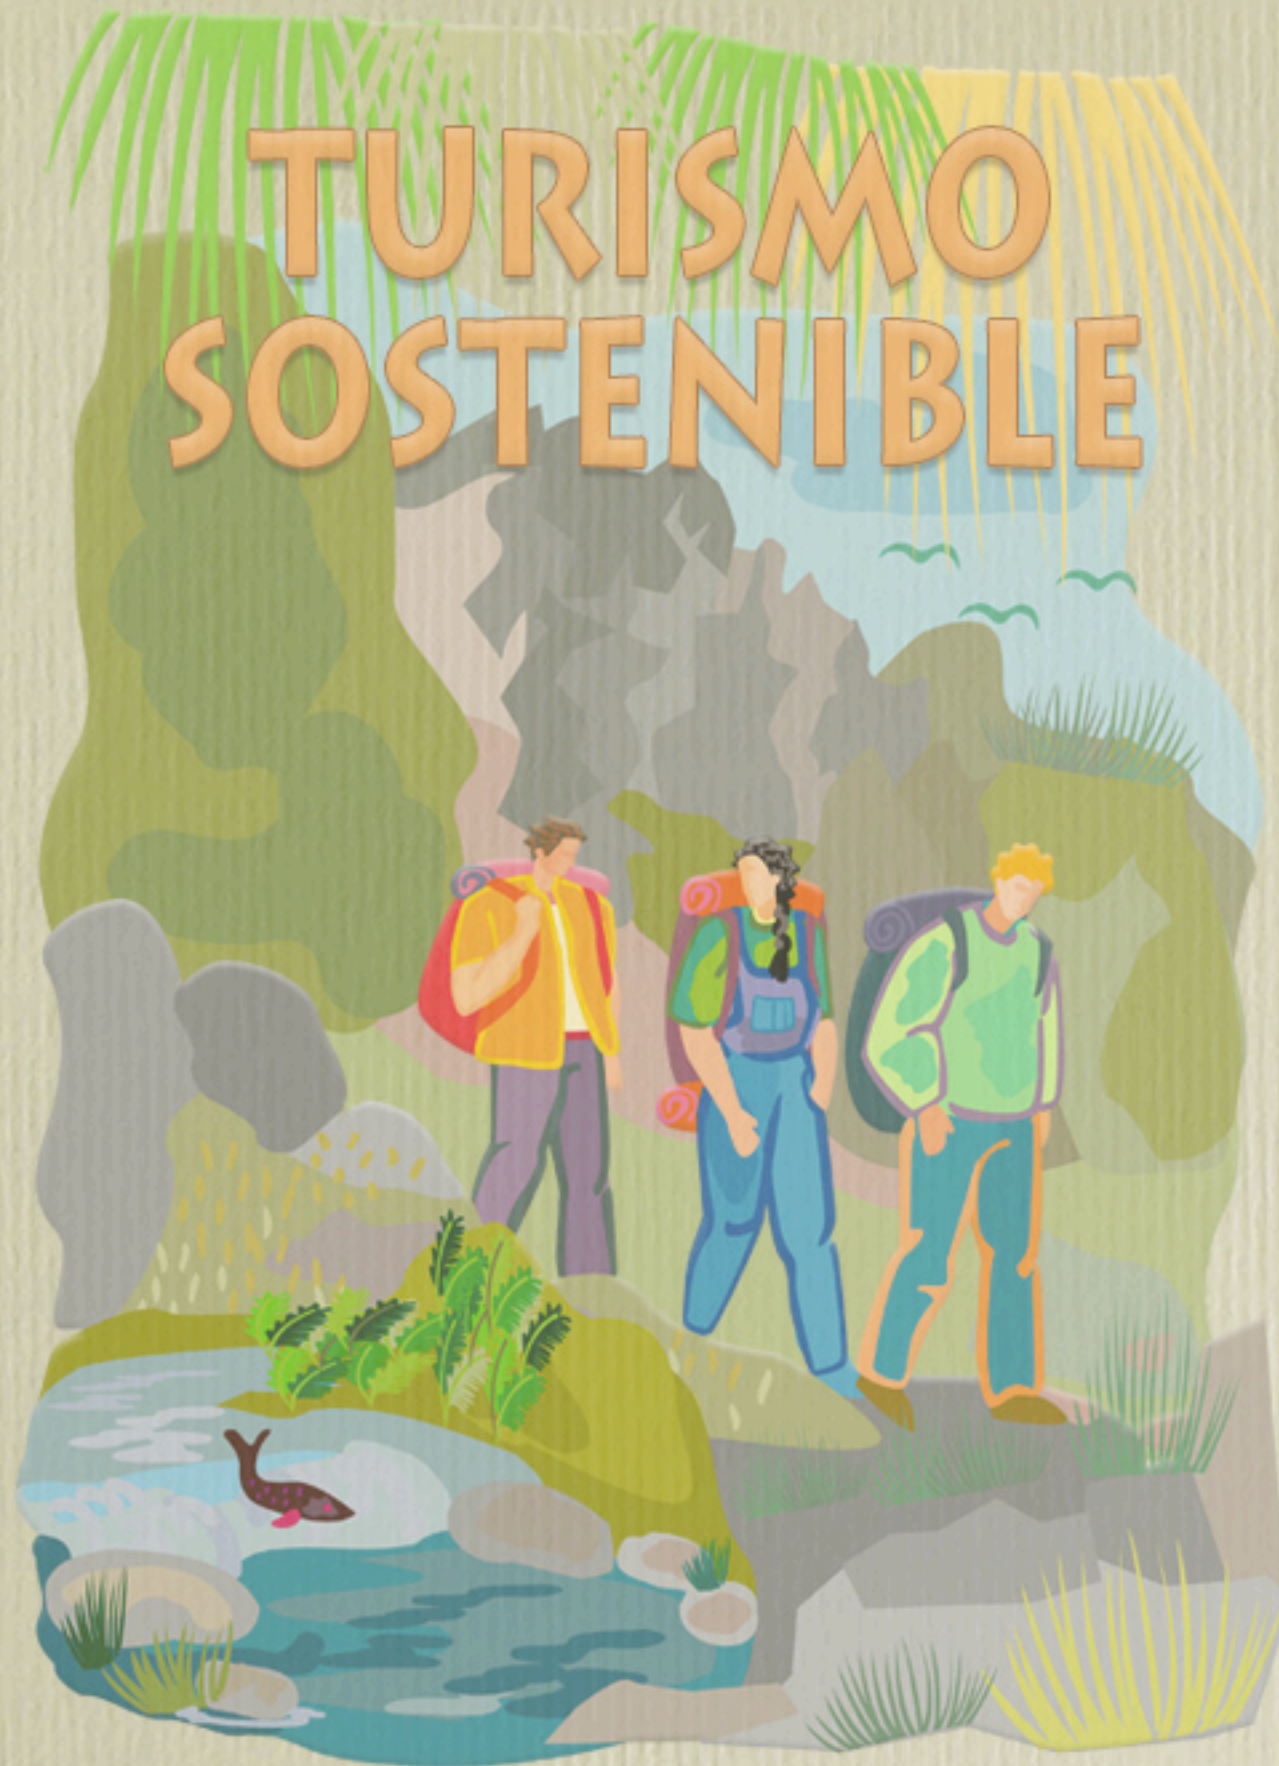

The production of this material was made possible through support provided by the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), the U.S. State Department, and the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID).

NICARAGUA 2006

TURISMO SOSTENIBLE

SUSTAINABLE TOURISM